

My builder and I added the deck off the master to the original plans. We did not realize we needed a gutter over the back doors. We found that we did and had a gutter installed to stop the direct flow. I also did not turn the a/c on to keep the home climatized. That said; moisture or humidity got to the wood floors and warped them. I had all the wood flooring downstairs replaced with a textured wood look porcelain tile. Billy