

BROKER'S NOTICE OF RELIANCE ON INFORMATION

Throughout the transaction, Buyer has or may have been provided oral and/or written information contained in flyers, disclosures, pamphlets, surveys, abstracts, advertisements, repair estimates, multiple listing services, homeowner association documents, construction documents, appraisals, reports, and other documents concerning the Property (collectively referred to as "Information"). Some examples of the Information include square footage, dimensions, flood history, acreage, valuation, construction plans and specifications, the environment, repairs and various other matters relating to the Property and its location and condition.

The Information is from third parties including, but not limited to, the seller, taxing authorities, surveyors, appraisers, inspectors, and others. The Information is not verified by RE/MAX Partners or Chris Wylie and RE/MAX Partners and Chris Wylie assume no responsibility for the accuracy or correctness thereof. Buyer should verify the Information. By its signature below, Buyer acknowledges and represents that (1) it will verify the Information, (2) it will not rely on any oral or written statements by RE/MAX Partners, Chris Wylie and/or their representatives, and (3) it has read and understands this Notice.

Buyer: _____ Date: _____

Buyer: _____ Date: _____