Broker/ Prospect Registration Agreement: real estate agent ("Agent") must accompany and register client on first visit at each community sales office. If the client purchases a home in another D.R. Horton neighborhood where the client has not been registered by Agent, no commission will be received. In the event that two Agents register the same client, Agent determination will be at the client's discretion. Agent must be present at the time of contract signing for commission to be received. Registration will protect the procuring agent for 30 days. For more information, please contact our corporate office at (254) 778-8500.
