

What the owners are saying...

15 Cattail Lane is the bright, shiny jewel of the street that stands out above the rest thanks to the beautiful inviting Georgian style, colorful, tropical landscaping, and well maintained appearance and larger lot size. We love the quiet, friendly neighborhood, close proximity to I-45 and also the new Grand Parkway. The tropical oasis in our backyard maintains the privacy we love and gives our

- We love the layout of the home. It is open yet still allows privacy and an eye on the children.
- The downstairs master suite is a luxury getaway, especially if you have children
- The upstairs Jack and Jill bathrooms are perfect for children or guests
- Plenty of storage with large walk-in closets and additional shelving in each room
- Upstairs bedroom layout allows for privacy in each room with the common area tying it all together
- If wanted, one entire side of the upstairs could be used as a mother-in-law suite or guest wing
- Love the kitchen! It's big, very functional - ideal for a chef with tons of cabinets and workspace
- The backyard is like an oasis during the summer. The pool stays cool and semi-shaded, the tropical landscaping takes you to a different place, and there's so much room to entertain
