

Fox Bend at Sienna

9307 Fox Bend Lane $1,274,900

5,808 Square Feet on a 14,528 Square Foot Lot

Jamestown Estate Homes presents a marvelous Mediterranean-style home perfect for modern families. Upon entering the home through double French doors, you'll see a graceful dining room with a two-story ceiling, bringing in lots of natural light. The great room opens to the kitchen, breakfast room and wet bar, perfect for get-togethers with family and friends. The study and separate home office, plus a mud room off the garage, make this home as functional as it is beautiful.

The downstairs game room leads to a stunning outdoor living space, complete with fireplace and summer kitchen. Guests will love their private suite, set away from the other bedrooms in the home. The master suite is designed to impress, with a groin-vault ceiling in the master bath, oversized walk-in shower, and massive his and her closets.

Upstairs you'll find 3 generous bedrooms and an oversized media/flex room allowing plenty of room to spread out and enjoy!
