

Here's what the owners are saying...

2419 Anderson Point Lane is the bright, shiny jewel on the street that stands out above the rest thanks to the beautiful architecture, the well maintained appearance, colorful landscaping, and wide lot with a full three car garage. We love the fact it's a gated community and the close proximity to I-45 make it convenient for shopping and dining. We love our outside backyard and patio area which offers privacy and gives our family such a wonderful place to enjoy .and entertain with friends.

Here's a few more bullet points we love ...

- We love the layout of the home. It offers the convenience of the children being downstairs plus the bonus playroom upstairs. When we have friends over, they're not always underfoot.
- The entire house has so many windows and natural light during the day.
- The downstairs master suite is very spacious, offers picturesque windows and a luxurious master bath with a soaking tub complete with it's own TV.
- Both bathrooms are conveniently located for kids and/or guests.
- There is an abundance of storage with large walk-in closets and additional shelving in each room, plus the extra storage over the garage and in the game room.
- Love the kitchen! It's big, very functional - ideal for a chef with tons of cabinets extra workspace with cabinets on the side and a great walk-in pantry
- The backyard is great for entertaining with room for a six person table and chairs plus sectional space. It's a great place to entertain.
- The garages are big and offers extra space for a refrigerator, work bench and shelves.
- It's so convenient to Home Depot, Target and HEB. Plus it's only 15 min to The Woodlands, 15 min to IAH, 20 min to The Heights, 20 min to Vintage Park and a 25-30 min commute to Downtown!
- You'll love raising your family in this quiet, convenient neighborhood with wonderful schools.
