

About the Builder

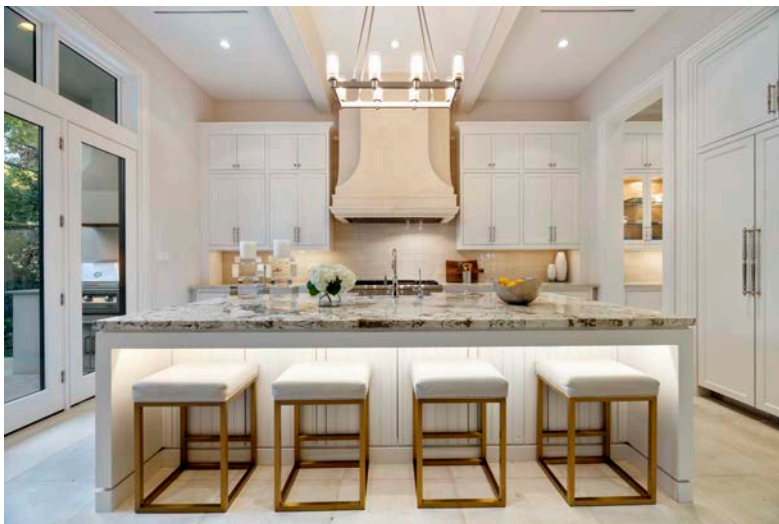

Discover what makes Veranda Custom Homes a trusted luxury home builder in Houston's finest neighborhoods.

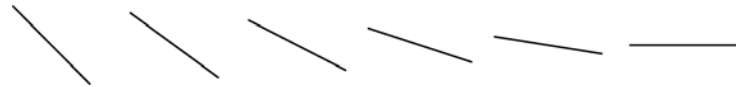

Veranda Custom Homes has been serving the greater Houston area for over 25 years, providing some of the finest, luxury custom homes in various neighborhoods. Veranda continues to deliver unique, high quality, well-built homes that can be tailored to modern or traditional styles. Veranda is dedicated to not only building a home with quality architecture and construction but also providing exceptional attention to detail inside and outside the homes.

Guity Kashani founded the company in the 1980s and offers a variety of experience as a builder and interior designer. Veranda's homes/projects can be found throughout River Oaks, West University, Tanglewood, Memorial and several other areas in Houston. She is committed to providing the appropriate information and tools in order to deliver the best product for her home buyer and accommodate various budget levels.
