ADDENDUM A: SPECIAL PROVISIONS:

It is agreed that the entire amount of the builder deposit (being $10,000) shall be paid directly to Seller (Vecino Homes) at 3302 Canal Street within 1 day from the Executed Date of this contract, and that the entire amount of the builder deposit shall be non-refundable regardless of any circumstance (excepting only a circumstance where Seller materially breaches this contract in an incurable manner). Time is of the essence with regard to this special provision and, therefore, Seller may unilaterally terminate this contract by giving written notice of termination to Buyer if the builder deposit is not timely delivered in the manner herein described. To the extent that this special provision conflicts with any other term(s) of this contract, this special provision shall prevail. Should this contract fail to close for any reason (other than Seller's material and incurable breach), then Seller shall retain the entire amount of the builder deposit as liquidated damages and not as a penalty of any kind, as both parties agree that (i) the total amount of the builder deposit is a reasonable estimate of Seller's minimum total economic damages on the account of the contract not closing, and (ii) the exact amount of such damages would be difficult to estimate with certainty at this time.

Buyer acknowledges that completion/closing dates are estimated and can be subject to change. Builder is not responsible for any expenses due to unforeseen delays during construction.

Builder to provide ACES Builder's home warranty. Builder will provide stainless steel refrigerator (Samsung/LG depending on inventory).

Owner's Title Policy is paid/credited by preferred lender and offered to buyer only when using builder's preferred lender: Chris Reyes from PrimeLending. If buyer chooses to use an outside lender, the buyer will be responsible for paying the title policy and the stainless steel refrigerator will not be included with the home.

Any upgrades will be collected up-front and are non-refundable if the buyer does not close or terminates the contract.
