The Property

Whether you are an equine enthusiast, want to escape to a country retreat, or want to start or expand your cattle operation, this breathtaking, 91.28 AC property has the infrastructure in place to make your dreams come true! Cross-fencing, barn, storage building for hay, tack room, and existing pens are just a few of the exterior highlights. The stately, 4,204 sq ft home is full of classic features you can rarely find in today's modern builds, including rich wood accents in foyer and great room, built-in ironing board in the oversized utility room, and integrated desk in the kitchen. Other features include 2 options for the owner's suite, dramatic fireplace, and plenty of windows, which allow you to enjoy majestic views of the multiple ponds and centuries-old live oak trees that can be found on the property.
