Young Heights family makes big home design changes in small steps

Tips for big changes in small steps (Katie Davis Design)

1. If you walk through a room and are unhappy, it's likely time for a décor change.
2. Be open minded about what the change might be. If it's the sofa you don't like, what exactly don't you like? If it's the fabric, try reupholstering it. If it's the shape or style, you might need a new sofa.
3. It's easier and less expensive to update a coffee table or side tables; they often cost less than chairs or sofas.
4. Changing your lighting — from pendants or chandeliers to even table lamps — can make a big difference. Katie Davis says that lamps can serve as artwork in a room.
