

Why we love our home

We have loved this home because it is in a small, quiet and safe neighborhood. We have no backyard neighbors and which opens up to a park our kids have loved playing in along with our spacious backyard. We love sitting outside on our deck with built in seating.

We love the open concept of this home which has been great for entertaining. This home is centrally located in Alvin and walking distance to local schools.