

VILLAGE PLACE COMMUNITY

Established in 1977, Village Place community consists of 517 individual family homes. At today's market prices, the values of these homes range between $350,000 and $900,000.

As we all know, Houston is a dynamic city, and every year it seems to be spreading farther and farther west. This expansion has placed Village Place in an ideal location with many employers, shopping malls, grocery stores, restaurants, and entertainment nearby.

Village Place community has convenient access to major highways and contemporary shopping malls including Memorial City Mall and City Centre. It is within easy reach of grocery stores such as HEB, Kroger's Signature Stores and Trader Joe's as well as many others. Many Village Place residents work in the Westchase District and Energy Corridor that are close by. There is also a wide variety of restaurants and endless entertainment possibilities with easy access to weekend events in the Houston downtown area that is just minutes away.
