

Letter To The Buyers

Dear Buyer,

When buying a home, we want to make sure that we're getting a secure house in a good neighborhood. That's why a lot of buyers are curious on why the sellers are selling they're home. Well, here is the at home sellers story on why they are selling.

When they originally bought this property, they bought it because it was very close to their work then all the extras the property had. Now that one of the kids are going to college and the other one is that private school and both schools are in Houston. He decided it would be a smarter idea to buy a house in Houston next to the schools. So, they decided to have a house built to their needs in Houston to make their kids commutes easier. As much as they loved this home, they think it's a good idea for them to finally give it to another deserving family.

The sellers hope that you fell in love with his house like they did and continue to make their homes special to you and your family. They feel there's so much potential still left that they didn't get a chance to do. They hope you have a happy life and fall in love with this house.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to the listing agent!
