

The windows and the outside balcony rails are the responsibility of the association. The association is also responsible for the floor hallways and the Board of Directors has discussed on repainting all the hallways. The sixth floor is the example of what the rest of the floors will look like.

Sincerely,

Karina Elizondo

General Manager

