

Additional Info About 2106 – 56th Street

This cottage was moved to this location from the Teichman Rd. area (across the street from the Galveston Daily News). The cottage was built after World War II by Ross Novelli's father. After that, Ross and his wife moved into it, where they lived for several years, having 3 children while living there.