I enjoy the proximity to stores and eating places in Trinity, Riverside, Huntsville, and Livingston areas. From our location they are easy to get to in a short amount of time with little congestion. The tall trees and space around our home gives a person a sense of calm and enjoyment of nature. The sunsets against the trees, the constant movement of the clouds add peace while looking out the windows. Our home is very energy efficient even more now with the new true thermal dual pane windows. Last year even with the February freeze we did not even use a full tank of propane and that was before the new windows. The large garage and shed have been a blessing and are watertight allowing me to do various projects.
