

Why We Love Our Home

Welcome to our home of 9 years! We hope you enjoy touring this sweet space. This house has seen so much love and excitement over the past (almost!) decade. We bought this home as young newlyweds, and have since welcomed our dog and 2 precious children here. This house has hosted numerous birthday parties, supper clubs, neighbor dinners, and backyard play dates. It's been such a blessing to have an inviting and cozy space to celebrate and share with the people we love the most.

When we were looking for our first home in Houston, we knew we wanted 3 bedrooms for us to grow into, with a nice kitchen (we love to cook and entertain), and a spacious backyard. We also wanted a family-friendly neighborhood with an excellent elementary school option. We found that and more! We have been pleasantly surprised by how quiet this section of Westbury is, as there are no through streets, and it's a joy to see so many families and people out walking pets and riding bikes throughout the day and evening. It's a treat to have no backyard neighbors, but a calm parking lot with beautiful oak trees that provide great afternoon and evening shade. Speaking of neighbors, we believe ours are the best! Everyone around is kind and helpful, but the family next door has become some of our dearest friends who we will miss tremendously. We've also been thankful for the quick access to 610 and the Beltway, grocery stores, the medical center, good restaurants, and fun parks and kid-friendly destinations. It's even only a quick 25 minute commute to downtown! One gem that's not as well known in Westbury is Willow Waterhole. A mile down the road you'll feel like you're out of the city as you walk nature trails and see wildlife and wildflower sanctuaries. There is so much to see and do here.

We hope the new owners love this home, street, neighborhood, and little corner of Houston as much we have and make sweet memories of their own.
