Amendments

These By-Laws may be supplemented, altered, amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Members of the Association voting in person or by Proxy or electronically at any annual meeting, there being a quorum present, and the Members of the Association having been notified of such proposed changes in accordance with the provision of these By-Laws. The Board of Trustees shall have the authority to amend the By-Laws without a petition exclusively when the amendments are made to conform with Texas law.

ARTICLE IX

Indemnification

Section 1: Indemnification of Trustees and Officers:

- (a) The Association shall indemnify any person who is or was a party or is or was threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a trustee or officer of the Association and to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Business Organizations Code, as such act may be amended from time to time (but in the event of an amendment to the act, such amendment shall only apply if such amendment permits broader indemnification of trustees than permitted prior to the effective date of such amendment) against any and all expenses, judgments, awards, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action suit or proceeding.
- (b) The Association shall pay or reimburse in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding reasonable expenses incurred by a person who is or was a party or is or was threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a trustee or officer of the Association to the fullest extent permitted by the Texas Business Organizations Code.

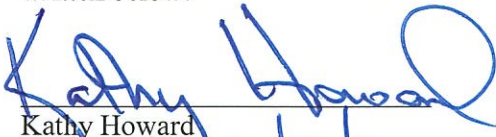

Section 2: Indemnification of Persons Not Trustees or Officers: The Association may, but is not required to indemnify and advance expenses to any person who is or was an employee or agent of the Association to the same extent as provided to Trustees and Officers in Section 1.

Section 3: Notice: Upon notice from any indemnified person that there is threatened or has been commenced any such action, suit or proceeding, the Association:

- (a) Shall defend such indemnified person through counsel selected by and paid for by the Association and reasonably acceptable to such indemnified person, which counsel shall assume control of the defense; and
- (b) Shall reimburse such indemnified person for expenses encompassed by the foregoing indemnity in advance of the final disposition of any such action, suit or proceeding, provided that the indemnified person shall agree to repay to the Association all amounts so reimbursed if a court of competent jurisdiction finally determines that such indemnified person is liable to the Association by reason of the fact that such indemnified person has been found guilty of the commission of a crime or gross negligence in the performance of his duties.

Section 4: Limitations on Indemnification: The Association shall not indemnify any person with respect to matter as to which it is adjudged in any suit, action or proceeding that such person is found liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken in the person's official capacity or in which the person is found liable to the Association, EXCEPT THAT, the Association may indemnify a person under Section 1 if the indemnification (1) is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding, and (2) shall not be made in respect of any proceeding in which the person shall have been found liable for willful or intentional misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Association.

The foregoing By-Laws were adopted by majority consent of the elected trustees, effective as of the latest date written below:
