

Interior Pictures of the Cabin overlooking the pond. The cabin was built a very long time ago (seller does not know exact date) Her father created what you see now in 1986 by adding on to the existing structure. The home needs work to restore it to its former glory. It would make a great project for a primary home or a guest home.

