The Condominium is more particularly described in that certain Declaration of Condominium and of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Oakwood Gardens Condominium, recorded on August 15, 2008, in Volume 203, Page 278 of the Official Public Records of Real Property of Harris County, Texas (the "Declaration"), as it thereafter may be amended from time to time.

In furtherance of said purposes, this Association shall, inter alia, have the powers to:

7. Membership Voting Rights: This Association will have one class of Members. The number and qualifications of Members of the Association, the voting and other rights and privileges of Members, their liability for Assessments and the method of collection thereof shall be as set forth in the Declaration and the Bylaws. Without limiting the foregoing, every person or entity who is a record owner of a fee or undivided fee interest in any Unit, including contract purchasers with right of possession of a Unit, but excluding persons or entities holding an interest merely as security for the performance of an obligation, shall be a Member of the Association. Membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of any Unit.

8. Board of Directors: The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The initial Board shall consist of three directors, who shall serve until their successors are appointed by Declarant in accordance with the Declaration and Bylaws, and whose names and addresses are as follows:

Michelle Ravelo
1502 W. Osborn Rd., Suite 7
Phoenix, Arizona 85015

Leticia Mendoza
13100 Southwest Freeway, Suite 130
Sugar Land, Texas 77478

After the Period of Declarant Control expires or terminates: (i) the number of directors on the Board shall remain three (3) in number; (ii) no director serving on the Board at any time shall be related by blood, adoption, or marriage to, or share ownership of or any interest in a Unit with, any other director serving on the Board at that same time; and (iii) all directors serving on the Board shall be elected by the Membership as provided in the Declaration and Bylaws. Directors elected by the Membership shall be Unit Owners; provided, further, however, that if a Unit Owner is other than a natural person, a Director may be an officer, director, member, manager, partner, or trustee of such Unit Owner.

9. Elimination of Director Liability: The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he/she is or was a Director, officer, committee member, employee, servant or agent of the Association against expenses (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and amount; paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if it is found and determined by the Association or a competent court of law that he/she (i) acted in good faith and in a manner he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Association, or (ii) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by settlement, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or in a manner which he/she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Association, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his/her conduct was unlawful. The Association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, committee member, employee, servant or agent of the Association, against any liability asserted against him/her or incurred by him/her in any such capacity, or arising out of his/her status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him/her against such liability hereunder or otherwise.

10. Dissolution. The Association may be dissolved with the consent given in writing and signed by Members holding not less than eighty percent (80%) of the total votes in the Association. So long as Declarant owns one or more Units, the Association may not be dissolved without the prior written consent of Declarant. In the event of dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Association (other than incident to a merger or consolidation), the Association shall pay or adequately provide for the debts and obligations of the Association and otherwise comply with the Texas Business Organizations Code and Texas law. Upon dissolution of the Association, the assets of the Association, both real and personal, shall be (i) granted, conveyed and assigned to any non-profit corporation, association, trust or other organization engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the Association and which are qualified as exempt organizations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law, or (ii) dedicated to an appropriate public agency to be devoted to purposes as nearly as practicable as those to which they were required to be devoted by the Association. If such actions are not feasible, or, in the event of a termination of the Condominium, said directors in charge of the liquidation, said Directors or other Persons in charge of the liquidation, shall divide the remaining assets among the Members in accordance with their respective allocated interests as set forth in the Declaration, except as may be required by law.

11. Amendments. These Articles may be amended by vote or written assent of Members representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the total allocated votes in the Membership; provided, however, that the percentage of the voting power necessary to amend a specific clause or provision shall not be less than the prescribed percentage of affirmative votes required for action to be taken under that clause or provision. The Board, without the consent of the Members or First Mortgagees, may amend these Articles to conform to the requirements and guidelines of any governmental or quasi-governmental entity or federal corporation that insures, guarantees, or invests in residential mortgages.

12. Incorporation. The name and address of the incorporator of the Association are:

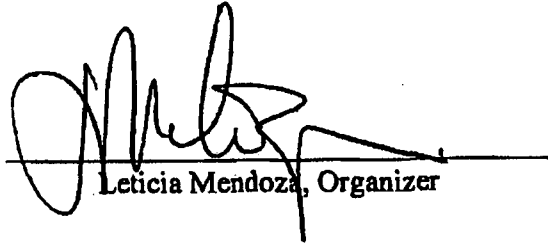

Leticia Mendoza
13100 Southwest Freeway, Suite 130
Sugar Land, Texas 77478

13. VA/FHA Approval. During the Period of Declarant Control, the approval of the VA or FHA, as applicable, shall be required prior to the annexation of additional real property to the Condominium, mergers, consolidations and/or dissolution, of the Association, conveyancing, mortgaging or dedication of Common Elements, or amendment of these Articles.

14. Definitions. All initially capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings set forth in such terms in the Declaration and/or the Condominium Act.

OF
OAKWOOD GARDENS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1 Defined Terms. Capitalized terms used in these Bylaws without definition shall have the meanings specified for such terms in the Texas Condominium Act, § 82.001 et seq., and in the Declaration of Condominium and of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Oakwood Gardens Condominium, recorded on August 15, 2008, in Volume 203, Page 278 of the Official Public Records of Real Property Harris County, Texas, as amended from time to time. Whenever the context so requires, the use of the singular shall include and be construed as including the plural and the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter.

1.2 Principal Office. The principal office of the Association shall be located at the place designated in the Articles or such other place as may be designated from time to time pursuant to Texas law. Meetings of Members and the Board of Directors may be held at the principal office of the Association or at such other place as may be designated by the Board of Directors within the State of Texas.

1.3 Conflicting Provisions. In the case of any conflict between the Articles and these Bylaws, the Articles shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these Bylaws, the Declaration shall control.

1.4 Corporate Seat. The Association may, but is not obligated to, have a seal in a form approved by the Board of Directors.

1.5 Designation of Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall begin on the 1st day of January and end on the 31st day of December of every year, except that the first fiscal year shall begin on the date of incorporation.

1.6 Books and Records. The Condominium Documents and all other books, records, financial statements, and papers of the Association shall be available for inspection by any Member or First Mortgagee during reasonable business hours at the principal office of the Association where copies may be purchased at reasonable cost. The Association may withhold from inspection those books, records and papers designated in Section 82.114(b) of the Texas Condominium Act.

1.7 Amendment. Except as otherwise provided herein, these Bylaws may only be amended, at a regular or special meeting of the Members, by a vote of Members holding more than fifty percent (50%) of the total allocated votes of the Membership entitled to be cast by the Members present in person, by proxy, or by absentee ballot as permitted by law, provided further that, during the Period of Declarant Control: (i) no amendment to these Bylaws shall be adopted without the express written consent of Declarant; (ii) any amendment of these Bylaws must be approved by the VA or FHA prior to the amendments taking effect, if said agencies have approved the development plan of the Condominium; and (iii) Declarant, without the consent of any Unit Owner or First Mortgagee, may amend these Bylaws to comply with the Condominium Act or applicable law, correct any error or inconsistency, or to comply with the requirements or guidelines of any governmental or quasi-governmental entity or federal corporation guaranteeing or insuring mortgage loans in the Condominium. Section 3.1 of these Bylaws may be amended from time to time unilaterally by vote of the Board of Directors without the consent of the Members to change the number of Directors serving on the Board after the Period of Declarant Control expires or terminates to either three (3), five (5), or seven (7) directors from the number of director positions then established for the Board.

1.8 Indemnification. To the extent it has the power to do so under Chapter 22 of the Texas Business Organizations Code, as it may be amended from time to time, the Association shall indemnify any Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, in an action by or in the right of the Association or otherwise, by reason of the fact that he is or was a Member, director, officer, employee or agent of the Association or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a member, director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, and against judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted, or failed to act, in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. Indemnification of any such Person shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in Chapter 22 of the Texas Business Organizations Code. Liability of the Directors shall also be limited as provided in the Articles.

1.9 Notices. All notices, demands, statements or other communications required to be given or served under these Bylaws shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given and served if delivered personally or sent by United States mail, postage prepaid, or, in the case of a notice pursuant to Section 2.11, Section 5.2, or Section 5.4 of these Bylaws, registered or certified United States mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, (i) if to a Unit Owner, at the address which the Unit Owner shall designate in writing and file with the Secretary or, if no such address is designated, at the address of the Unit of such Unit Owner, (ii) if to the Association, the Board of Directors or the Managing Agent, to such address as is set forth in any Recorded notice pursuant to Sections 82.113(d) and 82.116 of the Texas Condominium Act, and if such address is no longer valid, then to the last known business address of such Person on file with the Texas Secretary of State and, if a different address, also to the address of the statutory agent of such Person, and (iii) if to Declarant, at the address designated for Declarant in the records of the Texas Secretary of State. A notice given by mail, whether regular, certified or registered, shall be deemed to have been received by the person to whom the notice was addressed on the earlier of the date the notice is actually received or three (3) days after the notice is mailed. If a Unit is owned by more than one person, notice to one of the Unit Owners shall constitute notice to all Unit Owners of the same Unit. Addresses for notice may be changed from time to time by the giving of notice in the manner provided herein for the giving of notices.

ARTICLE II. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

2.1 Annual Meeting. The first annual meeting of the Members shall be held within one (1) year of the date on which the Association is incorporated, and an annual meeting of the Members shall be held during each calendar year thereafter. The date, time and place of each annual meeting of the Members shall be determined by the Board of Directors, but shall always be held within the State of Texas.

2.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Members may be called at any time by the President or a majority of the Board of Directors or by Unit Owners having at least twenty percent (20%) of the total allocated votes in the Association. All special meetings of the Association Membership shall be held within the State of Texas. Special meetings called to remove directors shall be subject to the further provisions and requirements of Section 82.108 of the Texas Condominium Act.

2.3 Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of the Members shall be given by, or at the direction of, the Secretary or person authorized to call the meeting by mailing a copy of each notice, postage prepaid, no fewer than thirty (30) nor more than fifty (50) days before such meeting to each Member entitled to vote at the meeting addressed to the Member's address last appearing on the books of the Association or supplied by such Member to the Association for the purpose of notice. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendment to the Declaration or the Bylaws, any budget changes or change in Assessments requiring the approval of Members, and any proposal to remove a director or officer.

2.4 Quorum and Adjournment. Except as otherwise provided in the Articles, the Declaration or these Bylaws, including, without limitation, Section 7.4 of the Declaration, the presence in person, by proxy or by absentee ballot (as permitted by applicable law) of Members entitled to cast sixty percent (60%) of the total authorized votes in the Association shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Members. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting, the Members entitled to vote thereat shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present. Except as provided in Section 7.4 of the Declaration, any adjournment for lack of a quorum shall be to a date not more than fifty (50) days from the original meeting date. Meetings may also be adjourned to another place and time for reasons other than lack of quorum if the place and time are announced at the meeting at which adjournment is taken and the reconvened meeting is held within fifty (50) days of the adjourned meeting.

2.5 Multiple Owners. If more than one Person owns a Unit and only one of those multiple Unit Owners of a Unit is present at a meeting of the Association, he is entitled to cast the vote allocated to that Unit on behalf of the other Persons who co-own the Unit. If more than one of the multiple Unit Owners are present, the vote allocated to that Unit may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the multiple Unit Owners, unless the Declaration otherwise provides. There is deemed to be agreement of a majority in interest of the co-Owners if any one of the attending co-Owners of the Unit casts the vote allocated to that Unit without any of the co-Owners present promptly making a protest to the person presiding over that annual or special meeting of the Members.

2.6 Proxies/Absentee Ballots.

(A) During the Period of Declarant Control, a vote allocated to a Unit may be cast pursuant to a proxy duly executed by a Unit Owner. If a Unit is owned by more than one Person, each co-Owner of the Unit may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by another Unit Owner of the Unit through a duly executed proxy. A Unit Owner may not revoke a proxy except by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the Association. A proxy is void if it is not dated or if it purports to be revocable without notice. The proxy is revoked on presentation of a later dated proxy executed by the same Unit Owner. A proxy terminates one year after its date, unless it specifies a shorter term or unless it states that it is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable. All proxies, including irrevocable proxies coupled with an interest, shall automatically cease upon conveyance by the Member of his Unit or upon receipt of actual notice by the Secretary of the Board of the death or judicially declared incompetence of such Member.

(B) Votes allocated to a Unit may be cast pursuant to a proxy in accordance with Section 82.110 of the Texas Condominium Act.

2.7 Record Date. For any meeting of the Members, the Board of Directors may fix in advance a date, not more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, as a record date for the determination of the Members of record entitled to notice of, and to vote at, such meeting. The Members entitled to vote at any meeting of the Members will be determined as of the applicable record date if one has been fixed as aforesaid, otherwise as of the time the meeting is convened.

2.8 No Cumulative Voting. There shall be no cumulative voting permitted in the affairs of the Association, including the election of Directors.

2.9 Organization and Conduct of Meetings. All meetings of Members will be called to order and thereafter chaired by the President of the Association. If the President is unavailable, such other officer of the Association or such other Member as may be appointed by the Board of Directors may call the meeting to order and chair the meeting. The Board may also delegate the role of chairing the meeting to the Managing Agent (as defined in Section 3.11(B) below). The Association's Secretary will act as secretary of each membership meeting. In his absence, the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person (whether a Member or not) to act as secretary thereat. After calling a meeting to order, the chairman thereof may require the registration of all Members intending to vote in person and the filing of all proxies (if proxy voting is then allowed by applicable law) with the election inspector or inspectors, if one or more has/have been appointed (or, if not, with the secretary of the meeting). After the announced time for such filing of proxies has ended, no further proxies or changes, substitutions or revocations of proxies will be accepted. Absent a showing of bad faith on his part, the chairman of the meeting will, among other things, have absolute authority to: (i) fix the period of time allowed for the registration of Members, the filing of proxies, and the delivery of absentee ballots, (ii) determine the order of the business to be conducted at such meeting, and (iii) establish reasonable rules for expediting the business of the meeting (including any informal or question-and-answer portion thereof).

2.10 Action Without a Meeting by Written Consent. Pursuant to Section 22.220 of the Texas Business Organizations Code, any action that, under the provisions of the Condominium Documents and the Texas Condominium Act, may be taken at a meeting of the Members may, in lieu thereof, be taken without a meeting if authorized by a writing by the Members holding a majority of the votes in the Association, or if a higher percentage of votes is required by a specific provision of the Condominium Documents to take such action, then if authorized by a writing signed and dated by Members holding the specified percentage of votes in the Association. Such written consent shall be filed with the Secretary of the Association for inclusion in the corporate records as further provided in Section 82.114 of the Texas Condominium Act.

2.11 Suspension of Voting Rights. In the event any Unit Owner is in arrears in the payment of any Assessment, Collection Costs, or other fees or charges that are either secured by an Assessment Lien or by a civil judgment Recorded against a Unit Owner's Unit, for any period commencing fifteen (15) days after the due date in the case of amounts secured by the Assessment Lien or, for any period commencing fifteen (15) days after the Recording of any civil judgment in the case of Association charges that are not so secured, the Unit Owner's right to vote as a Member of the Association shall be automatically suspended. The Unit Owner's right to vote shall remain suspended until all payments secured by the Assessment Lien or any Recorded civil judgment are paid and/or brought current. In addition, a Unit Owner's right to vote shall be suspended for any continuing infraction of the Condominium Documents by the Unit Owner, his Lessees or their respective Invitees, that is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice thereof from the Association and shall remain suspended until any such infraction or violation of the Condominium Document ceases as reasonably determined by the Board. The Board may also impose a suspension of a Unit Owner's right to vote for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days by giving written notice of such suspension to any such Unit Owner who has committed, or whose Lessees or their respective Invitees have committed, repeated or multiple single infractions (three or more instances) of any provisions of the Condominium Documents in any six (6) month period by giving written notice to such Unit Owner of the suspension (regardless of whether such infractions have been subsequently cured or ceased). In the case of a summary suspension of voting rights pursuant to this Section 2.11 for non-monetary violations of the Condominium Documents, the Board shall provide the date of the next scheduled Board meeting in the suspension notice. The affected Unit Owner may request a hearing before the Board before such suspension becomes effective if the Unit Owner serves a written request for a hearing on the Board within ten (10) days after the Board's service of the suspension notice on the Unit Owner in the manner provided in Section 1.9 above. Upon the Board's receipt of a request of a hearing, the matter shall be heard at the next scheduled Board meeting. To the extent applicable, all notices given by the Association under this Section 2.11 shall include the information required to be given under Section 82.102 of the Texas Condominium Act.

2.12 Membership Mandatory. The Membership of the Association shall consist of all record Owners of Units. Membership in the Association shall be mandatory and such Membership and voting rights are appurtenant to, and may not be separated from, ownership of the Unit. No Owner during his ownership of a Unit shall have the right to relinquish or terminate his Membership in the Association.

ARTICLE III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 Number/Composition/Qualifications. During the Period of Declarant Control:

The affairs of this Association shall be managed by a board comprised of three (3) directors. Declarant shall have the sole right to appoint and remove the members of the Board of Directors. Declarant-appointed Directors need not be Unit Owners. Declarant may voluntarily surrender its right to appoint and remove the members of the Board of Directors before termination of the Period of Declarant Control, and, in that event, the Declarant may require, for the duration of the Period of Declarant Control, that specified actions of the Association or the Board of Directors, as described in a Recorded instrument executed by Declarant, be approved by Declarant before they become effective.

After the Period of Declarant Control expires or terminates:

The Board shall remain comprised of three (3) directors. However, the number of director positions on the Board may be changed from time to time by an amendment to these Bylaws unilaterally adopted by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 1.7 above, with such amendment to be effective at the next meeting of the Association membership at which an election of directors is to be held. The number of directors may never be less than three (3) nor more than seven (7) and must always be an odd number. All directors shall be elected by the Unit Owners. Each director so elected by the Membership must be a Unit Owner or an officer, director, member, manager, partner, trustee or other principal of any Unit Owner that is a legal entity or is otherwise not a natural person. No director serving on the Board at any time shall be related by blood, adoption, or marriage to, or share ownership of or any interest in a Unit with, any other director serving on the Board at that same time and in that event, the most recently elected director in such a relationship shall be deemed disqualified from serving on the Board. No member of the Association whose right to vote has been suspended pursuant to Section 2.11 above may stand for election to the Board by the Membership and such person shall automatically be deemed disqualified from seeking election to the Board.

3.2 Term of Office. All directors elected by the Unit Owners at a meeting of the Association Membership after the Period of Declarant Control expires or is earlier terminated shall serve staggered terms as follows: If a three person Board: The first director shall serve a three-year term, the next director elected shall serve a two-year term, and the remaining director shall serve a one-year term. If a five person Board: The first two directors shall serve a three-year term, the next two directors shall serve a two-year term, and the remaining director shall serve a one-year term. If a seven person Board: The first three directors shall serve a three-year term, the next two directors shall serve a two-year term, and the two remaining directors shall serve a one-year term. Thereafter, all directors shall be elected to three (3) year terms. All elections of directors shall be for such terms as will preserve the staggering of terms as provided in this Section 3.2. To determine which director shall serve terms of three years, two years or one year, respectively, the director(s) obtaining the most votes at the election at which they were elected shall serve the longest terms until all such terms are filled.

3.3 Removal. Except with respect to the members of the Board of Directors appointed by the Declarant, any one or more of the members of the Board of Directors may be removed from the Board of Directors, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Members entitled to vote and voting on the matter in person, by proxy (if allowed by applicable law), or at any special meeting of the Members of which notice has been properly given and a successor shall then and there be elected to fill the vacancy thereby created. Any petition to call a special meeting of the Members for purposes of removing a designated member of the Board of Directors may not be submitted more than once during the term of office for that particular Board member.

3.4 Compensation/Conflicts of Interest. No director shall receive compensation for any service he may render to the Association which is within his duties as a director. However, any director may be reimbursed for his actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties. A director may receive compensation for services rendered to the Association which are outside his duties as a director if the payment of such compensation is approved by all of the other directors. Any director with a "conflict of interest" as determined by the most strict interpretation of the director "conflict of interest" provisions of Chapter 22 of the Texas Business Organizations Code and the Texas Condominium Act (Section 82.103), as amended from time to time, may not vote on any proposal to provide director compensation to himself or any other director and shall recuse himself from participating in any discussions regarding a "conflicting interest" transaction.

3.5 Action Taken Without A Meeting. The directors shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting by obtaining the written consent of all the directors. Any such written consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors.

3.6 Vacancies. Except with respect to members appointed by the Declarant and vacancies caused by the removal of a member of the Board of Directors by a vote of the Unit Owners as set forth in Section 3.3 of these Bylaws, all vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled by a vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum or by a sole remaining director. Any person so elected shall serve the unexpired portion of the prior director's term. Any newly created directorship shall be deemed a vacancy. Any person elected to fill such a vacancy shall serve until the next annual meeting of the Members.

3.7 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place within the State of Texas as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. All regular meetings of the Board shall be held in compliance with the provisions of Section 82.108 of the Condominium Act that allow for any Member or his designated representative to attend such Board meeting before any deliberative action is taken on a matter.

3.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of at least two (2) directors. Special meetings of the Board shall be held within the State of Texas. Members and their designated representatives may attend and speak at special Board meetings in the same manner as provided in Section 3.7 above.

3.9 Quorum/Proxy Voting. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Such meetings shall be held at least once during each fiscal year and are open to all Members of the Association as provided in Section 3.7 and Section 3.8 above, provided, however, that a portion of any meeting dealing with certain matters specified in Section 82.108 of the Texas Condominium Act concerning litigation and other confidential matters of the Association may be closed to the Members. After the Period of Declarant Control expires or terminates, notice of the time and place of Board meetings may be given to Members by newsletter, conspicuous posting on or near the Common Element mail boxes, or by any other reasonable means as determined by the Board. During the Period of Declarant Control, no notice of Board meetings need be given to Unit Owners; provided, however, that information regarding the time and place of the next scheduled Board meeting shall be provided to any Member who requests such information in good faith.

ARTICLE V. MONETARY AND OTHER PENALTIES

5.1 Power of Board of Directors to Impose Monetary Penalties. In accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article 5, the Board of Directors shall have the right to impose reasonable monetary penalties or fines against any Unit Owner who violates any provisions of the Condominium Documents relating to matters other than failure to timely pay Assessments. The Association may impose late charges, charge delinquent interest and undertake the remedies specified in the Declaration for failure to timely pay Assessments without regard to any of the mandatory hearing provisions of this Article 5. Any monetary penalty or fine imposed by the Board of Directors in accordance with this Article 5 shall be imposed only after the procedures set forth in this Article 5 have been substantially complied with.

5.2 Notice of Violation. If the Board of Directors becomes aware of a violation of the Condominium Documents and desires to impose a monetary penalty against the Unit Owner who violated the Condominium Documents, the Board of Directors shall serve the Unit Owner with written notice of the violation. The notice shall contain the following:

- (i) The nature of the alleged violation and the provision(s) of the Condominium Documents that are alleged to have been violated;
- (ii) The date of the alleged violation or the date the alleged violation was observed, as applicable;
- (iii) Information on how to request an opportunity for a hearing on the alleged violation to be held no later than the next regular Board meeting (to be returned by the affected Unit Owner within ten (10) days after the date of the written notice of violation, unless a longer time to respond is permitted by the Board for exigent circumstances);
- (iv) The proposed monetary penalty to be imposed by the Board of Directors.

Upon the Board's receipt of a request for hearing regarding an alleged violation of the Condominium Documents, all fines, imposition of monetary penalties and commencement of legal actions, shall be stayed until the matter of the alleged violation is resolved. The Board shall, within a reasonable time after receipt of a request for hearing, deliver a notice of hearing to the affected Unit Owner. The notice of hearing shall specify the time and place of the hearing (to be held not earlier than fifteen (15) days' after delivery of the notice of hearing) and shall contain an invitation to the Unit Owner to produce statements, evidence and witnesses on his behalf and advising the Unit Owner that he may be represented at the hearing by an attorney.

5.3 Hearing. The hearing on any alleged violation of the Condominium Documents shall be held at the time and at the place designated in the notice served pursuant to Section 1.9 and Section 5.2 of these Bylaws. Proof of service of the notice as required by Section 5.2 of these Bylaws shall be placed in the minutes of the meeting. Such proof shall be deemed adequate if a copy of the notice, together with a statement of the date and manner of delivery, is entered by the officer, director or agent who served the notice. The notice requirement shall also be deemed satisfied if the alleged violator appears at the meeting. The minutes of the meeting shall contain a written statement of the results of the hearing and the monetary or other penalty, if any, imposed by the Board of Directors. Any fine which is imposed by the Board following a hearing pursuant to this Section 5.3 shall be paid by the offending Unit Owner within a reasonable time frame established by the Board on a case by case basis pursuant to Board policies or Rules (but not less than ten (10) days) after a notice of the action of the Board is served upon the Unit Owner as provided in Section 1.9 of these Bylaws. After such payment period established by the Board in its notice of action, if such monetary penalty or fine is unpaid by the Owner, the Board, among other remedies, may: (i) seek to enforce its Assessment Lien to the extent any penalties or fees payable under this Article 5 are secured thereby in the manner provided in the Declaration for enforcement of Assessment Liens or, in the alternative, and/or if not so secured, (ii) seek to obtain and Record a civil judgment against the Unit of the offending Unit Owner in the amount of such monetary penalty or fine. Any fines imposed pursuant to this Article 5 shall be the joint and several liability of all of the joint Owners of the Unit, including co-tenants and Persons holding title in community property. To the extent applicable, all notices given by the Association under this Section 5.3 shall include the information required to be given under Section 82.102(d) of the Texas Condominium Act.

5.4 Suspension of Rights to Use Recreational Common Elements. If any Unit Owner is in arrears in the payment of any Assessment, late charges, monetary penalties or other fees or charges due under the terms of the Condominium Documents, including Collection Costs, for a period of fifteen (15) days, the Unit Owner's right to use, or to delegate the use of, the recreational Common Element amenities to Lessees or other lawful Residents of the Unit or their respective Invitees, shall be automatically suspended and shall remain suspended until all payments are brought current. In addition, a Unit Owner's, Resident's or right of any Person occupying a Unit, to use the recreational Common Elements shall be suspended for any continuing infraction of the Condominium Documents by the Unit Owner, his Lessees or other lawful Residents of a Unit, or their respective Invitees, that is not cured within thirty (30) days after notice thereof from the Association to the Unit Owner and shall remain suspended until any such infraction or violation of the Condominium Documents ceases as reasonably determined by the Board. The Board may also impose a suspension of a Unit Owner's, Lessee's, Resident's (or their respective Invitees') right to use the recreational Common Elements for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days by giving written notice of such suspension to any such Unit Owner who has committed, or whose Lessees, Residents, or their respective Invitees have committed, repeated or multiple single infractions (three or more instances) of any provisions of the Condominium Documents in any six month period (regardless of whether such infractions have been subsequently cured or ceased). In the case of a summary suspension of recreational Common Element use rights for non-monetary violations of the Condominium Documents pursuant to this Section 5.4, the Board shall provide the date of the next scheduled Board meeting in the suspension notice. The affected Unit Owner or Resident may request a hearing before the Board before such suspension becomes effective if the Unit Owner or Resident serves a written request for a hearing on the Board within ten (10) days after the Board's service of the suspension notice on the Unit or Resident in the manner provided in Section 1.9 above. Upon the Board's receipt of a request of a hearing, the matter shall be heard at the next scheduled Board meeting. Any suspension of use rights imposed in accordance with this Section 5.4 shall also apply to any Resident or any other Person occupying the Unit Owner's Unit irrespective of whether the occupancy of a Unit is temporary (as e.g. in the case of a guest) or long term. The Board's right to suspend recreational Common Element use pursuant to this Section 5.4 shall be in addition to the right of the Board to suspend a Unit Owner's voting rights in accordance with Section 2.11 of these Bylaws and the Declaration. To the extent applicable, all notices given by the Association under this Section 5.4 shall include the information required to be given under Section 82.102(d) of the Texas Condominium Act.

5.5 No Limitation on Other Rights and Remedies. Nothing contained in this Article 5 of these Bylaws shall be construed as limiting the rights and remedies of the Board or any other Owner to enforce the Condominium Documents provided therein and available at law or in equity, it being understood that this Article 5 relates to the imposition of certain fines and other penalties and is not intended as a recitation of the entire scope of the rights and remedies of the Board or any Member of the Association.

ARTICLE VI. ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL AND ARCHITECTURAL COMMITTEE

6.1 Duties Pursuant to Section 4.3 of Declaration. The Board shall meet from time to time as necessary to perform its duties pursuant to Section 4.3 of the Declaration. The Board may, at the expense of the Association, employ one or more consultants to assist the Board with its duties pursuant to said Section 4.3.

The vote or written consent of a majority of the members of the Board, at a meeting or otherwise, shall constitute the act of the Board unless the unanimous decision of the Board is required by any other provision of the Declaration.

6.3 Waiver. The approval by the Board of the plans, drawings, or specifications for any work done or proposed, or for any other matter requiring the approval of the Board under the Declaration, shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of any right to withhold approval of any similar plan, drawing, specification, or matter subsequently submitted for approval.

6.4 Liability. So long as a member of the Board has acted in good faith on the basis of information actually possessed, neither the Board nor such member thereof, shall be liable to the Association, any Owner, or to any other party, for any damage, loss, or prejudice suffered or claimed on account of: (i) the approval or disapproval or any plans, drawings, or specifications, whether or not defective; (ii) the construction or performance of any work, whether or not pursuant to approved plans, drawings, and specifications; (iii) the development of any portion of

In the case of a denial of an application, the Board shall make a good faith effort to detail in writing any objectionable materials in an Owner's application for a Modification pursuant to Section 4.3 of the Declaration; provided, further, however, that at no time may any Owner, Resident, or their agents or contractors, proceed with a Modification without the express prior written approval of the Board, and then only in exact conformity with the Modification so approved.

Any new member appointed to replace a member who has resigned or been removed shall serve such member's unexpired term. Any members who have resigned, been removed, or whose terms have expired may be reappointed.

(C) Appointment and Removal. Except as may be otherwise provided in the Declaration, the right to appoint and remove all members of the Architectural Committee at any time, shall be and is hereby vested solely in the Board; provided, however, that no member may be removed from the Architectural Committee by the Board except by the vote or written consent of more than fifty percent (50%) of the entire Board.

(D) Resignations. Any member of the Architectural Committee may resign at any time upon written notice to the Board.

(E) Vacancies. Vacancies on the Architectural Committee however caused, shall be filled by the Board. A vacancy or vacancies on the Architectural Committee shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation, or removal of any member thereof.

The Architectural Committee shall keep and maintain a written record of all actions taken by it at such meeting or otherwise. Members of the Architectural Committee shall not be entitled to compensation for their services. However, the Architectural Committee may, at the expense of the Association, employ one or more consultants to assist the Architectural Committee.

ARTICLE VII. OTHER COMMITTEES

The Board may create one or more committees (other than the Architectural Committee described in Section 4.3 of the Declaration and Article 6 above) and appoint members of the Board to serve on them. Each committee shall have one or more members and each member of a committee shall serve at the pleasure of the entire Board. The creation of a committee and appointment of members of the Board to the committee must be approved by the greater of: (a) a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken; or (b) the number of directors required by Section 3.9 above to take action. The provisions of these Bylaws governing meetings, action without meetings and notice, waiver of notice, quorum and voting requirements of the Board shall also apply to committees of the Board and their members.

Each committee of the Board may exercise the authority of the Board to the extent specified by the Board, except that a committee shall not take any of the following actions: (a) authorize distributions; (b) fill vacancies on the Board or any of its committees; (c) adopt, amend or repeal these Bylaws; and (d) fix the compensation of directors for serving on the Board or any committee or fix the compensation of any officer serving the Board. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee.

7.2 Advisory Committees. The Board may appoint committees consisting of members and/or non-members of the Board to advise the Board and to perform such tasks as the Board deems necessary or desirable.
