RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

THE STATE OF TEXAS §
COUNTY OF FORT BEND §

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

THAT WE, the undersigned, owners or lienholders each own record title to property within the following described real property or own liens on portions of the below described real property, to wit; that certain tract of land in the I & G N Survey Abstract No. 366, Fort Bend County, Texas, more particularly described by metes and bounds on Exhibit "A" attached hereto and made a part hereof, each of us being the owner of a tract of land or owner of a lien on land within said tract, desiring to ensure the uniform improvements and development of such land, do hereby ADOPT, ESTABLISH AND IMPOSE the following reservations, restrictions, covenants and conditions upon said properties which shall constitute covenants running with the land and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the present owners, their respective successors and assigns, and to each and every purchaser of any of said properties, their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

We, the undersigned, mutually agree for ourselves, our heirs and assigns, that the above described property shall be bound by the following restrictive covenants:

1. SUBDIVISION AND HOMESITES

The property has been subdivided into homesites or lots. No residence shall ever be constructed on a homesite or lot containing less than one acre of land.

2. LAND USE

All of the lands covered by these restrictions shall be known and used for residential purposes. No structure shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on each lot or homesite, other than one single family dwelling, a private garage, servants quarters, barn and outbuildings used in connection with such dwelling. This provision shall exclude hospitals, duplex houses, apartment houses, multiple family houses, places of worship, and all structures of whatever kind or character designed or used for commercial or industrial purposes.

3. STRUCTURES

All structures, residences, garages, barns and outbuildings constructed, erected or placed on any lot or homesite shall be new construction. New construction means that no used or second-hand structure shall be moved in or placed on any of said lands. In addition to the foregoing, every residence shall contain a minimum of 1700 square feet of ground floor living area; no residence shall be more than two (2) stories in height; provided that any story and one-half or two story residence shall contain not less than 1750 square feet of living area, with a ground floor living area of not less than 1200 square feet; living area does not include porches (either open, screened or closed), garages or other areas not occupied and used by the owners as living space. Materials of owners choice may be used in construction of improvements on this property, except that no artificial tarpaper brick, or sheet metal shall be used on any structure on said lands. In this connection, the owners of said lands may use manufactured colored metal panels for the construction of improvements on said lands. All wood shall be either painted or stained with not less than two coats of paint or protective material.

4. ANIMALS

No animals, livestock, fowl or poultry of any kind shall ever be raised, bred or kept on any part of this property for any commercial or semi-commercial purpose. This provision shall never be construed to prohibit the keeping of any animal, livestock, fowl or poultry for the purpose of a pet or hobby; provided only that such animals, livestock, fowl or poultry shall be kept and maintained in a clean and sanitary condition which will not be a nuisance or become offensive to the neighborhood.

5. TEMPORARY RESIDENCES OR BUILDINGS

No structure of a temporary character, house trailer, basement, tent, shack, garage, barn or other similar type erected on any part of said property, shall be used at any time as a residence, either temporarily or permanently.

6. CULVERTS AND CROSSINGS

All driveways or culverts crossing ditches or public drains shall be installed in accordance with the rules and regulations of the governing body having control over the streets and drains within said property. Driveways shall have a width of not less than fifteen (15) feet.

7. TERM

These restrictions and covenants are hereby declared to be covenants running with the land and shall be fully binding upon all persons acquiring part of said property whether by descent, devise, purchase or otherwise, and any person by the acceptance of title to any part of said property shall thereby agree and covenant to abide by and fully perform the foregoing restrictions and covenants. The covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding for a period of 21 years from September 8, 1990, and shall be automatically extended for successive ten (10) year periods thereafter unless on or before one (1) month prior to the end of such period of time fifty-one (51%) percent of the owners of the land area described herein shall agree in writing, properly executed and recorded in the Office of the County Clerk of Fort Bend County, Texas, to amend or repeal such restrictions.

8. ENFORCEMENT

If any person or persons shall violate or attempt to violate any of these restrictions and covenants herein, it shall be lawful for any person or persons owning an interest in the land described on Exhibit "A" to prosecute proceedings at law or in equity against the person violating or attempting to violate any such restriction and covenant, either to prevent such person from so doing or to correct such violation or to recover damages or other relief for such violation. Invalidation of any one or any part of these restrictions by judgment or court order shall in no wise affect any of the other provisions or parts of provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

9. MULTIPLE COUNTERPARTS

These restrictive covenants may be signed in any number of counterparts and will take effect and be binding upon any party signing them. When properly recorded in the Real Property Records of Fort Bend County, Texas, the individual counterparts shall collectively be deemed the whole of the Restrictive Covenants.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed these Restrictive
