

Tax Day Flood 2016

We flooded due to heavy rains compounded by the fact that the neighbor behind us was pumping his pool onto his back fence instead of onto the street.

This was just too much for the French drains to handle.

After this we replaced our gutters and made them go around the whole house. We had our French drains replaced entirely. We also added a sump pump and a channel drain to make sure we would never have that issue again.

-Sellers