

BY LAWS of CIA Hidden Forest, Inc.
(A Civic Association)

Amended July 2014

Article I

Name and Addresses

The name of the organization shall be CIA Hidden Forest, Inc. hereinafter referred to as the "Association". The Association is a Texas non-profit corporation. The principle office shall be in Hidden Forest Estates, a subdivision in Montgomery County, Texas with a mailing address of P.O. Box 599, Montgomery, Texas 77356. The Association may transact business elsewhere in the State of Texas, as required by the needs of the Association.

Article II

Object

The object of this Association shall be to promote civic pride and establish public unity in the Hidden Forest Estates, to maintain property owned by the Association, to obtain needed improvements for the community and to assist, civic, and social enterprises and activities that are of the welfare of the community.

Article III

Members

Section I

Members in the Association shall be confined to adult property owners in Hidden Forest Estates, Property owners are defined as the registered owner with the Montgomery County Tax Authority. The boundaries of Hidden Forest Estate shall be as shown by the maps or plats of the various sections on file or of record or of which may be placed on file or of record in the office of the County Clerk of Montgomery County, Texas

Section II

The owner or Owners of each lot are entitled to one vote for each lot owned in the Subdivision. If record title to a particular lot or lots in the name of two or more persons, all co-owners shall be Member and may attend any meeting of the Association but the voting rights appurtenant to each such lot may not be divided and fractional votes shall not be allowed. Any one of said co-owners may exercise the vote appurtenant to each such lot so owned at any meeting of the Members and such vote shall be binding and conclusive on all of the other co-owners of said lot who are not present: provided, if one of the non-attending co-owners has given the Association notice of objection to the attending co-owners vote. No vote shall be cast for said lot except upon notice of unanimous consent by all such co-owners being given to the Association. In the event more than one vote is cast for a single lot, none of the votes so cast, shall be counted and all of such votes shall be deemed void.

In the absence of a quorum at a meeting of Members, the meeting may be adjourned and immediately reconvened for the sole purpose of conducting Director Elections. The quorum required for election of Directors at the reconvened meeting shall be the number of votes cast in person by proxy, absentee ballot, or electronic ballot.

Section III

The annual Membership fees shall remain $36 a year and the Association Dues shall be $100 a year, identified separately. Thereafter, Association Dues shall be determined by three fourths vote of the membership present and voting at a regular scheduled board meeting, provided, however, any increase or decrease in the Annual Membership dues does not exceed ten percent, must be approved by a majority of members voting at the Annual meeting.

Section IV

The Annual Maintenance fees and Association Dues are due and payable on or before the 30th of April each year. There will be no proration of fees due.

Member may be cast or given:

- 1) In person or by proxy at a meeting of the Association
- 2) By Absentee ballot: or
- 3) By electronic ballot via email

The absentee ballots may not be counted, even if properly delivered, if the Member attends any meeting to vote in person. Any vote cast in a meeting by the Member supersedes any vote submitted by absentee or electronic ballot previously submitted. Absentee or electronic ballots may not be counted on the final vote of a proposal if the motion was amended at a meeting of the Members to be different from the exact language on the absentee or electronic ballot. Any solicitation for votes by absentee ballots by the Association must include an absentee ballot that contains each proposed action and provides an opportunity to vote for or against the proposed action, instructions for delivery of the completed absentee ballot, including the delivery location, all of which are required by Section 209.00592 of the Texas Property Code.

Section VI

A Member may, not later than the fifteenth day after the date of the meeting, at which an election was held, require a recount of votes in accordance with section 209.0057 of the Texas Property Code.

Section VII

A person who is a candidate in an Association election or who is otherwise the subject of an Association vote, or a person related to that person within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity, as determined under Chapter 573 of the Texas Government Code, may not tabulate or otherwise be given access to the ballots cast in the election or vote.

Section VIII

Standing committees of the Association may include, but not limited to the following; Work day, social, deed restrictions lake, elections, newsletter, and finance.

Article IV
Officers and Board of Directors

The officers of the Association shall be a President, Vice President, and Treasurer and Secretary. All officers shall be elected for term of 2 years. The Treasurer shall hold office until his/her successor is elected.

Section II

The Board of Directors shall consist of four (4) elected officers and six (6) directors: including one property owner from each section and one Director at Large. Directors shall be elected for a term of two (2) years or until their successor is elected. Members with a felony conviction or a conviction for a crime involving moral turpitude are not eligible.

Any Board member whose term has expired must be elected by the owners who are members of the Association. A Board member may be appointed to fill a vacancy caused by any reason, as provided in these Bylaws. A Board member appointed to fill a vacancy position shall serve the unexpired term of the predecessor Board member.

Now withstanding any other provision in these Bylaws, a quorum for purposes of election of Directors shall be the number of ballots cast in person or by proxy, by absentee ballot, and by electronic ballot, if available, as provided in these Bylaws.

Section III

The Board of Directors shall conduct the business of the Association between annual meetings of the Association and shall report the action at the next meeting.

Section IV

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held monthly as the Board may from time to time designate. All Board members shall be properly notified and a notice posted on the bulletin board at least 2 days prior to the meetings.

Section V

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the President, or in his/hers absence, the Vice President, or by any two Directors and be held at any place the Directors designate. Provided that, no less than two days' notice be given to all Board members and such notice is posted on the bulletin board two days prior to the meeting.

Section VI

Regular Board meetings shall be open to Members, subject to the right of the Board to adjourn a meeting and reconvene in a closed executive session to consider actions involving personnel, pending or threatened litigation, contract negotiations, enforcement actions, confidential communications with the Association's Attorney, matters involving the invasion of privacy of individual owners, or matters that are to remain confidential by request of the parties and agreement by the Board. Following any executive session, any decision made in the executive session shall be summarized orally and placed in the minutes, in general terms, without breaching the privacy of individual owners, violating any privilege, or disclosing information that was to remain confidential at the request of the affected parties. The oral summary shall include a general explanation of any expenditure approved in executive session.

Section VII

Members shall be given notice of the date, hour, place and general subject of a regular or special meeting of the Board, including a general description of any matter to be brought up for deliberation in executive session. The notice shall be (a) mailed to each member not later than the tenth day or earlier than the sixtieth day before the date of the meeting; or (b) provided at least seventy-two hours before the start of the meeting by; posting the notice in a manner reasonably designed to provide notice to the members in a place located on the Association's common property, or on conspicuously located private property within the subdivision, or by posting the notice on an Internet website maintained by the Association.

Section VIII

The Board, by any method of communication, including electronic and telephonic meetings, may meet without prior notice to Members, if each Director must be heard by every other Director, or the Board wants to take action by unanimous written consent to consider routine and administrative matters or a reasonably unforeseen emergency or urgent necessity that requires immediate Board attention. The action taken without notice to the Members must be summarized orally, including and explanation of any known actual or estimated expenditures approved at the meeting and documented in the minutes at the next regular or special meeting of the Board. Notwithstanding the authority to meet without notice to the Members, the Board may not, without prior notice to the Members, consider or vote on findings; damage assessments; initiation of foreclosure actions; initiation of enforcement actions, excluding temporary restraining orders or violation involving a threat to health and safety; increases in assessments; levying of special assessments, appeals from a denial of architectural control approval; or the suspension of a right of a particular Member before the Member has opportunity to attend a Board meeting to present the Members position, including any defense on the issue.

Section IX

A quorum at all meetings of the Board of Directors shall consist of six Board members.

Section X

In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, the Vice President shall succeed to the office of the President for the unexpired term. Any other vacancies in the elected officers or Director shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term.

Section XI

No salary shall be paid to the officers or Directors for their services, but they shall be reimbursed for any authorized expenses incurred on behalf of the Association.

Section XII

If any Board member misses three consecutive meetings, his/her position shall be declared vacant.

Article V
Duties of Officers

Section I

The President shall reside at all meetings of the member and of the Board of Directors, and shall act as Chairman of the Board of Directors. The President shall have general supervision of all affairs of the Association and shall perform all such duties as incident to his/her office or as directed by the Association or the Board of Directors.

Section II

The Vice President shall exercise the functions of the President in the absence or disability of the President and shall have such powers and discharge such duties as may be assigned to him/her from time to time by the Association or the Board of Directors.
