Principal Office

1 01. The principal office of the Corporation in the State of Texas shall be located at 10101 Southwest Freeway, Suite 550, Houston, Texas 77074. The corporation may have such other offices, either in Texas or elsewhere, as the Board of Directors may determine. The Board of Directors may change the location of any office of the Corporation.

ARTICLE 2

MEMBERS

Classes of Members

2 01. The POA shall have two classes of Members, Class A and Class B. Class A Members shall be all Owners (other than Harborwalk Development Company, LTD ("HWD")) The Class B Member shall be HWD, and its successors or assigns.

Voting Rights

2 02. Each Class A Member's voting rights shall be based on acreage within the Tract of land owned as to commercial property, and based on the number of townhomes, condominiums, or single family lots owned as to residential property. Ten (10) votes shall be granted per acre of Commercial Property owned, rounded to the nearest whole acre. One (1) vote shall be granted per townhome, condominium, or single family lot owned. Any Class A Member who is in violation of these Covenants, as determined by a majority of the Board, shall not be entitled to vote during any period in which such violation continues. Any Member who is delinquent in the payment of any Annual Assessment, User Fee (except those for services or facilities whose use is voluntary), or other fees or charges levied pursuant to the provisions of these Covenants, shall not be entitled to vote during any period in which any such fees or assessments are delinquent. The Class B Member (HWD) shall have the same voting rights as the Class A Members described above and based on acreage within the Tract of land owned as to commercial property, and based on the number of townhomes, condominiums, or single family lots owned as to residential property

Sanction, Suspension or Termination of Members

2 03 The Board of Directors may impose reasonable sanctions on a member for good cause after a hearing. Good cause includes the default of an obligation to the Corporation to pay fees or dues for a period of thirty (30) days following delivery of notice of default, or a material and serious violation of the Corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws, any rules adopted by the Corporation, or of any law. The Board of Directors may delegate such powers to a regular or ad hoc committee to conduct a hearing, make recommendations to the Board of Directors, or take action on behalf of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors or a committee designated by the Board of Directors to handle a matter involving sanctioning may not take any action against a member without giving the member adequate notice and an opportunity to be heard. To be deemed adequate, notice shall be in writing, described the violation or property damage that is the basis for the proceeding, including stating any amount due the Corporation, inform the owner that the owner is entitled to a reasonable period to cure the violation and avoid the fine or suspension (unless the owner was given notice and a reasonable opportunity to cure a similar violation within the preceding six months), inform the owner that the owner may request a hearing under Tex. Prop. Code § 209.007 or any successor statute on or before the thirtieth day after the date the owner receives the notice, and be sent certified mail, return receipt requested, at least thirty days prior to the hearing. Shorter notice may be deemed adequate if the Board of Directors or a committee designated by the Board of Directors to handle a matter involving sanctioning determines that the need for an early hearing outweighs the prejudice caused to the member and if a statement of the need for a timely hearing is included in the notice. A member shall have the right to be represented by counsel at and before the hearing. The Board of Directors or a committee designated by the Board of Directors to handle a matter involving sanctioning may impose sanctions by a vote of a majority of directors, or of members of a committee designated by the Board of Directors to handle a matter involving sanctioning, who are present and voting. Sanctioning of a member shall not relieve the member of any obligation to pay any assessment or other charge attributable to the lot(s) owned by such member.

INDEMNIFICATION

When Indemnification is Required, Permitted, and Prohibited

9 01 (a) The Corporation shall indemnify a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation who was, is, or may be named a defendant or respondent in any proceeding as a result of his or her actions or omissions within the scope of his or her official capacity in the Corporation. For the purpose of this article, an agent includes one who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, or trustee. However, the Corporation shall indemnify a person only if he or she acted in good faith and reasonably believed that the conduct was in the Corporation's best interests. In a case of a criminal proceeding, the person may be indemnified only if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. The Corporation shall not indemnify a person who is found liable to the Corporation or is found liable to another on the basis of improperly receiving a personal benefit. A person is conclusively considered to have been found liable in relation to any claim, issue, or matter if the person has been adjudged liable by a court of competent jurisdiction and all appeals have been exhausted.

(b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not necessarily preclude indemnification by the Corporation.

(c) The Corporation shall pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation in connection with the person's appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding involving or affecting the Corporation when the person is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding

(d) In addition to the situations otherwise described in this paragraph, the Corporation may indemnify a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation to the extent permitted by law. However, the Corporation shall not indemnify any person in any situation in which indemnification is prohibited by the terms of paragraph 9.01(a) above

(e) Before the final disposition of a proceeding, the Corporation may pay indemnification expenses permitted by the bylaws and authorized by the Corporation. However, the Corporation shall not pay indemnification expenses to a person before the final disposition of a proceeding if the person is a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding brought by the Corporation, or the person is alleged to have improperly received a personal benefit or committed other wilful or intentional misconduct

(f) If the Corporation may indemnify a person under the bylaws, the person may be indemnified against judgments, penalties, including excise and similar taxes, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) actually incurred in connection with the proceeding. However, if the proceeding was brought by or on behalf of the Corporation, the indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding

Procedures Relating to Indemnification Payments

9.02 (a) Before the Corporation may pay any indemnification expenses (including attorney's fees), the Corporation shall specifically determine that indemnification is permissible, authorize indemnification, and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable, except as provided in paragraph 9.02(c), below. The Corporation may make these determinations and decisions by any one of the following procedures

(i) Majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who, at the time of the vote, are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding

(ii) If such a quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the Board of Directors, designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of all directors, consisting solely of two or more directors who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding

(iii) Determination by a special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors by vote as provided in paragraph 9.02(a)(i) or 9.02(a)(ii), or if such a quorum cannot be obtained and such a committee cannot be established, by a majority vote of all directors

(iv) Majority vote of members, excluding directors who are named defendants or respondents in the proceeding

(b) The Corporation shall authorize indemnification and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable in the same manner that it determined whether indemnification is permissible. If the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and determination of reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the manner specified by paragraph 9.02(a)(iii), above, governing the selection of special legal counsel. A provision contained in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or a resolution of members or the Board of Directors that requires the indemnification permitted by paragraph 9.01, above, constitutes sufficient authorization of indemnification even though the provision may not have been adopted or authorized in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible

(c) The Corporation shall pay indemnification expenses before final disposition of a proceeding only after the Corporation determines that the facts then known would not preclude indemnification and the Corporation receives a written affirmation and undertaking from the person to be indemnified. The determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification and authorization of payment shall be made in the same manner as a determination that indemnification is permissible under paragraph 9 02(a), above. The person's written affirmation shall state that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under the bylaws. The written undertaking shall provide for repayment of the amount paid or reimbursed by the Corporation if it is ultimately determined that the person has not met the requirements for indemnification. The undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the person, but it need not be secured and it may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(d) Any indemnification or advance of expenses shall be reported in writing to the members of the Corporation. The report shall be made with or before the notice or waiver of notice of the next membership meeting, or with or before the next submission to members of a consent to action without a meeting. In any case, the report shall be sent within the 12 months period immediately following the date of the indemnification or advance.

If a person who has duly executed a proxy personally attends a meeting, the proxy shall not be effective for that meeting.
