
SPJST Lodge 88

Nestled just behind 1109 Beasley Hills is a beloved Houston gem, SPJST Lodge 88, renowned for its iconic bingo nights in the heights. Situated in Houston, Texas, SPJST Lodge 88 is more than just a venue for thrilling bingo evenings; it stands as a hub for family-oriented activities and community service initiatives. Proudly serving Houston families, the lodge extends its support through life insurance products and a host of fraternal activities.

Members of SPJST Lodge 88 actively engage in a diverse array of family-oriented events and community service projects. From dances, picnics, and games to contests, tournaments, and summer camps, the lodge fosters an environment of camaraderie and shared experiences. Additionally, the members generously contribute to community service projects, organize food drives, and provide assistance to hospitals, nursing homes, as well as police and fire departments.

While SPJST Lodge 88 is often associated with its Thursday night bingo extravaganzas, the lodge offers a plethora of other family-friendly activities. Throughout the year, it hosts lively dances featuring musical guests that add rhythm to the community's social calendar.

A standout feature of SPJST Lodge 88 is its Swim Club—a premier aquatics facility contributing to the vibrancy of the Greater Heights area. With an 8-lane, 25-yard lap pool and a spacious family pool spanning approximately 7,000 square feet, the Swim Club provides an inviting space for athletic pursuits, recreation, and fraternal gatherings. The well-equipped pool house, complete with locker rooms and a snack shack, enhances the overall experience, while a dedicated playground adds to the family-friendly charm of this community hub. SPJST Lodge 88, with its rich tapestry of activities, stands as a testament to its commitment to fostering a strong, connected community in the heart of Houston.
