Things We Love about this Home

- The central location....this home is close to everything and has many exits and access points in and out of the neighborhood. It is one of the best locations in The Woodlands!
- The backyard faces the pond which provides a wonderful view and adds to your backyard privacy
- Private driveway that fits three cars at the top for parking
- Lots of storage spaces including a huge walk-in attic space and closet under the stairs
- Peaceful street with great neighbors
- Great layout for entertaining and family gatherings
- Huge lot and space in the backyard!
- The entrance to the house from the garage through the laundry room—which is a perfect “drop zone” to keep clutter and shoes out of the house
