What we do
How does Allstate protect my personal information?	We use a variety of physical, technical and administrative security measures that help to safeguard your personal information. We require our employees and persons or organizations that represent us to protect your information and keep it confidential.
How does Allstate collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Apply for insurance or give us your contact information</li> <li>• Pay your insurance premium or file an insurance claim</li> </ul> We also collect your personal information from others, such as affiliates, credit bureaus, and insurance support organizations (which may retain and share your information with others).
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal and state law only gives you the right to limit <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Affiliates from using your information to market to you</li> <li>• Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you</li> </ul> State laws may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on those rights.
How else does Allstate use and share personal information?	We will also disclose your personal information without notice when necessary to: (a) comply with the law or requests from regulatory and law enforcement authorities; (b) protect and defend our customers, rights or property; (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of our customers or the public; (d) transfer corporate ownership; (e) conduct research, actuarial studies or audits; and (f) allow an insurance institution, producer, medical institution/professional or support organization to process insurance claims, verify coverage or benefits or perform other insurance functions. We will not use your medical information for marketing purposes without your consent.
What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?	Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
How can I review or correct my data?	You may access your recorded personal information under our possession and to request a correction, amendment, or deletion of such recorded personal information by sending a request to Allstate Insurance Company Customer Privacy Inquiries, PO Box 660 598, Dallas, TX 75266-0598.
