

Buying a home in a majority-minority census tract* area? You may be eligible for a Diversity Grant up to $8,000.

First Horizon Diversity Grants can help you build your future – and your community's. Eligible First Horizon applicants may receive up to $8,000.

- Diversity Grants may be applied to your down payment and closing costs.
- Diversity Grants are not a loan. There is no repayment required.
- Race and ethnicity are not considered when determining your grant eligibility.
- They may be combined with certain other HUD-approved gap-funding programs.

Talk to a First Horizon loan officer to explore your eligibility. Qualifications include:

- Your income must be greater than 80% of the median family income, but not greater than 140%.
- You cannot have more than $50,000 in liquid assets (other than retirement accounts) after closing.

*A majority-minority census tract is defined as greater than 50% population of minority residents as determined by the demographic median income of the FFIEC geo-coding website.
