

EADO (EAST DOWNTOWN)

5727 Kemp Street is just minutes away from Houston's vibrant EADO neighborhood, a place where there is no shortage of exciting things to do, incredible restaurants, and places to stay.

- 8th Wonder Brewery. Ever wonder where you can find the popular “We Love Houston” sign, or the 36-foot-tall sculpture of the Beatles by David Adickes. Both of them are here, and you can enjoy craft beer like their Hopston, TX IPA while paying homage to the Houston Astrodome with original seats in the taproom.
- Buffalo Bayou Park Cistern. Explore the 160-acre green space with beautiful gardens, hiking and biking trails, and public art.
- Warehouse Live. Enjoy live music from big-name artists and underground musicians. This venue has two sections: Studio and Ballroom.
- Aerosol Warfare. Explore graffiti, street art, and urban arts at this organization run by artists. Appreciate various art forms showcased by local and national artists 2.
- East End Backyard. Relax on the patio with your pup or enjoy happy hour drinks in this hot spot that's owned by Houston Dynamo legend Brian Ching.
- Fantastic Restaurants. Places like Huynh Restaurant, a family-run spot serving authentic Vietnamese food; Tout Suite, a bustling café with diverse global influences (don't miss their macaroons!); Brothers Taco House serves mouth-watering tacos, or Nancy's Hustle, a modern bistro and wine bar. So many more!
