

Here is the building plan for the garage. There's approximately 8-9 feet between the house and the garage. There will also be a wood fence between the 2 buildings. I do not have a start date, it could be weeks or months before the project can start.

